

Sahil Sharma

FOUNDER & CEO

With a decade of hands-on experience building ultra-luxury custom homes, Sahil brings a rare blend of technical expertise, visionary leadership, and an uncompromising eye for detail to everything he creates. He honed that craft as Lead Project Manager on one of the most prestigious private communities in the country, The Summit Club in Las Vegas, before founding Edgewood Collective LLC. Today, as CEO, he leads with that same dedication and passion, crafting homes that are as precisely engineered as they are made to be lived in and loved.

“Sahil is hands-on, personable, and honest.
He made my remodel so smooth.
I am beyond happy with all his work!”
